

Kenneth L. Fields

602-524-2280

kfields@fields-mediation.com

www.fields-mediation.com

Qualifications

Member of the District Of Columbia Bar from 1974 and Arizona Bar from 1977
Trial Attorney for U.S. Department of Justice-1974 to 1982 (Criminal & Civil Rights Divisions, Assistant U.S. Attorney-Arizona)

Private Practice of Law-both Civil and Criminal Practice 1982-1989

Trial Judge- Superior Court of Arizona in Maricopa County-1989 to 2007, Judge-Arizona Complex Civil Litigation Court, 2002-2007, Presiding Judge-Domestic Relations Department, 1993-1995

Arbitration/Mediation Practice, 2007-Present

Education

BA-University of Kentucky, 1968, Major in Political Science

JD-University of Kentucky, 1974, Member of the Law Journal

Mediation Training-Pepperdine School of Law and Vermont Law School 2007-2012

Relevant Experience

Adjunct Faculty & Instructor-US Army Command and General Staff College 1988-1995

Presenter-National Judicial College, Madrid, Spain 2004, Comparative Law-Civil Procedure

Presenter-Complex Construction Defect Litigation, Brookings Institute/American Enterprise Joint Project for Judicial Education, Washington, DC, 2006

Presenter-Construction Defect Litigation, Colorado Springs, CO and Key West, FL, 2005 and 2007

Presenter-Electronic Litigation and Electronic Court Filing, 2004 and 2006

Founding Member-American College of Business Court Judges

Presenter-Formation of Complex or Business Courts at Florida Bar Convention 2007

Board of Advisors- Brookings Institute/American Enterprise Joint Project for Judicial Education, Washington, DC, 2005-2007

Guest Lecturer, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Law Faculty, Belgrade, Serbia, 2013

Adjunct Faculty, Judicial Remedies, Arizona State University College of Law, 2013

Guest Lecturer-U. S. Business Law & White Collar Criminal Law, University Universum. Pristina, Kosovo, May 2014

Paper-Azov Legal Readings, April 18-19, 2014, Berdyansk, Ukraine. "Specialty Litigation: Business Courts in the United States, An Arizona Experience"

Guest Lecturer-Alternative Dispute Resolution, University of South Wales, Cardiff, Wales, United Kingdom, 2014